

It seems ironic, or perhaps befitting, that in consideration of these regulatory changes that would take away the voice of the people, you refuse to listen to the people or their representatives in Congress. In considering an amendment that would promote censorship and secrecy in our media, you refuse to declassify the text of the proposal. Surely by passing this resolution, you would abridge the freedom of our press, selling it off to an already-known high bidder. The beautiful irony is that no one will even understand what has happened, because there will be no one to tell the story. But you will know what has happened, and you will know that you have done it. Will you sleep as an American?
